ICISSM/Training/EPP/2025

5th September 2025

Why Executive Protection Professionals

Why Executive Protection Training Is Essential: Executive protection services provide a secure environment for these individuals to operate, travel, and conduct business, minimizing risks and ensuring their well-being. Executive protection is needed to ensure the safety and security of high-profile individuals, such as CEOs, executives, celebrities, and dignitaries, from various threats, including:

- Peace of Mind: Ensure safety and confidence for high-profile individuals and teams.
- Risk Mitigation: Proactively identify and neutralize threats before they escalate.
- Enhanced Productivity: Minimize disruptions so executives can focus on what matters.
- Seamless Travel: Navigate global mobility with security and efficiency.
- Privacy & Discretion: Safeguard personal and professional boundaries with integrity.

ICISS Certification Program: Certified EPP

Wealth creation in India is on upswing given to strong economy and resilient socio-political environment encouraged by stable and mature political leadership. Number of billionaires in India is steadily rising. List of 10 Richest People in India in 2025. India's billionaire landscape has witnessed significant growth in 2025, solidifying its position as the world's third-largest hub for billionaires. The nation now boasts 284 billionaires, marking an increase of 13 new entrants compared to the previous year. They all need efficient and professional proximate security, competent Personal Security officers and trustworthy Executive Protection Plans, tailor-made to specific needs. By investing in executive protection, organizations can:

- Protect their assets and reputation

Chief Instructor: Veena Gupta - India's First Woman Bodyguard

Veena Gupta is known as India's first woman bodyguard, a title she earned by breaking barriers in a field that was once considered only for men. Her journey is an inspiring example of courage, confidence, and commitment.

She is a postgraduate in Law and also holds a degree in Hotel Management, but her true calling was in the world of security and protection. With this passion, she founded Seam Risk Solutions Pvt. Ltd., a company that provides modern security services like executive protection, risk management, and security planning for high-profile clients.

Veena is a certified Close Protection Officer and has trained in Israeli hand-to-hand combat – Krav Maga. She is also a first-level instructor, a HECPO (Hostile Environment Close Protection Officer) from the UK, and a Civil Defence Warden. Apart from this, she is a certified self-defense and POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) instructor, helping women feel safe and confident.

Her achievements go far beyond her professional success. Veena is the Founder of WESS NGO, where she works for women's empowerment and safety awareness. She is also a TEDx Speaker and an author of two books – My Security, My Responsibility and The Protector, where she shares her knowledge and experiences.
